

Academy Academy, Academy the mother of many African warriors,

Academy of discipline regimentation loyalty and service...

Oh our Academy why are thou being demonized in social media why why,

Academy, your children training to be warriors draw barrage of stoning on you like paw paw tree who's fruit are sweet.

We'll don't weep Academy don't weep for you are still the great Academy,

The desired place of many but who's tenants are only the exceptional and the patriots.

Weep not our Academy weep not our Academy for you are still the great Academy.

March on the Nigerian Defence Academy.
