

The NDA authority wishes to bring to the notice of all parents and guardians that cadets do not pay for uniforms, accoutrement and other sundry items. Please note that NDA provides cadets with all items required in the course of their training in the Academy. Therefore, parents and guardians are requested to disregard any such information from any quarters while perpetrators of such acts if caught, will be brought to book accordingly.